February 20, 1978

Adm. Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Adm. Turner:

Founded by James Madison and Aaron Burr in the bold tradition of free expression, the American Whig-Clisophic Society, Princeton's largest extra-curricular organization, continues to promote the exchange of ideas through public discussion. To this end, the Society sponsors a seminar program called PROJECT UPDATE which allows students to confer with prominent individuals in the fields of communications, public and international affairs, and the arts.

This year approximately 25 Whig-Clio members will go to Washington, D.C. for the week of March 20 through 24, 1978. As a prominent public figure, your participation in the program would be greatly appreciated. Should you decide to take part in PROJECT UPDATE, we will make every effort to adapt our schedule to yours. The seminar, which can run from 45 minutes to one and one-half hours, can be conducted virtually any time and place that would be convenient for you.

We look forward to hearing from you soon. Thank you very much for your time and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Brian H. Jaffe

Adm. Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Adm. Turner:

Founded by James Madison and Aaron Burr in the bold tradition of free expression, the American Whig-Cliosophic Society, Princeton's largest extra-curricular organization, continues to promote the exchange of ideas through public discussion. To this end, the Society sponsors a seminar program called PROJECT UPDATE which allows students to confer with prominent individuals in the fields of communications, public and international affairs, and the arts.

This year approximately 25 Whig-Clio members will go to Washington, D.C. for the week of March 20 through 24, 1978. As a prominent public figure, your participation in the program would be greatly appreciated. Should you decide to take part in PROJECT UPDATE, we will make every effort to adapt our schedule to yours. The seminar, which can run from 45 minutes to one and one-half hours, can be conducted virtually any time and place that would be convenient for you.

We look forward to hearing from you soon. Thank you very much for your time and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Brian H. Jaffe
Director, PROJECT UPDATE
